Marquette, 18; Creighton, L. Creighton was beaten, but not humiliated afternoon on the university campus gridiron. In three of the game's quarters the local eleven held the visitors without a more by them, and in one of these scored a neat place kick itself. Hyle kicked it and thereby gained added glory He had been the bright particular star of the Creighton eleven by defensive play and also was a central figure because responsible for one of Marquette's touch downs. Its second must be directly charged to Kyle's slowness in getting the tall away on a deference punt. But his good playing fir outwelghed this.

immediately after this kick of Kyle's had been blocked, Marquette secred again this time on an eighty-yard run by Elsen, the big right guard who is Marquette's best player. This second touchdown (0) within twenty seconds of the other and this quickness of sequence probably exextitutes a record.

The first score of the game, Marquette's TEAMS only and devoid of Guidness, was made by Municil, the fallback, on a pinnes over tackie. The first quarter came to an end with the more # to 4.
